

AUSTRALASIAN TEAM ROPING ASSOCIATION

Instructor program

The ATRA instructor program aims to maintain a high standard of instruction for its members and ensure the appropriate qualifications are held.

The ATRA only endorse suitable candidates to represent our association

Approved by: ATRA board

Signed: ATRA secretary

Requirements to be accredited an "ATRA Instructor"

1. Financial member of the ATRA
2. Competent team roper
3. Complete "The Community Coaching General Principles" online course with the Australian Institute of sport. www.ausport.gov.au and submit certificate.
4. Make application to the ATRA for accreditation.
5. An assistant instructor status may be awarded to someone while they await gaining all the requirements.

The ATRA will only endorse training days, clinics or schools that are under supervision of an ATRA accredited instructor.

As part of the ATRA development program, the ATRA may financially support instructors and or promoters in conducting schools on behalf of the ATRA.

Application needs to be made to the ATRA development committee and all proposals will be considered

Roping Families in since 2006